

For Immediate Release – June 23, 2021

The Northern Ontario Service Deliverers Association held their 2021 Virtual Annual General meeting today where municipal and Territories without Municipal Organization members from across Northern Ontario selected a new NOSDA Executive.

Michelle Boileau, Municipal Councillor in the City of Timmins, and Board member on the Cochrane District Social Services Administration Board will serve as NOSDA Chair.

Penny Lucas, Mayor of Ignace and Vice-Chair of the Kenora District Services Board will serve as one of NOSDA two Vice-Chairs.

Mark King, Municipal Councillor in the City of North Bay and Chair of the Nipissing District Social Services Administration Board will serve as one of NOSDA two Vice-Chairs.

The NOSDA membership also approved 11 different issues specific resolutions calling on all levels of government to work together to improve the health and economic welfare for all people in Northern Ontario. Through the resolutions, members are asking for Ontario to help address the growing rates of mental health and addictions and that the Provincial government treat municipalities as partners when it comes to addressing the growing human services challenges. As NOSDA prepares for the AMO conference, more details on the resolutions will be released in the weeks to come.
