DNSSAB Announces Amanda Smith Elected by Acclamation as TWOMO Representative

North Bay, ON: The District of Nipissing Social Services Administration Board (DNSSAB) has concluded the nomination process for the 2026 Territory Without Municipal Organization (TWOMO) election.

The nomination period opened on May 1, 2026, and at the close of nominations at 2:00 p.m. on August 21, 2026, one candidate had been nominated for the Area 7 representative position on the DNSSAB Board.

As the number of candidates did not exceed the number of available positions, Amanda Smith has been elected by acclamation as the Area 7 representative on the District of Nipissing Social Services Administration Board.

Smith is the incumbent Area 7 representative, having served on the DNSSAB Board for the past two terms.

The new term will take effect January 1, 2027, alongside municipal representatives elected during the October 2026 municipal election. As the Area 7 representative, Smith serves residents of the Territory Without Municipal Organization within the District of Nipissing and participates in Board governance and decision-making.

DNSSAB thanks Representative Smith for her continued commitment to representing residents of the Territory Without Municipal Organization and contributing to the work of the Board.
